

Monday November 1	Tuesday November 2	Wednesday November 3	Thursday November 4	Friday November 5
HOLIDAY FYI “All Saints' Day is a Catholic feast day, celebrated on 1 November, on which the Catholic Church honours all saints, known and unknown [...] All Saints' Day should not be confused with the Commemoration of the Faithful Dead, celebrated the following day. [...] However, since in France and Belgium the 1st of November, All Saints' Day, is a public holiday, it is customary to commemorate the dead on this day instead of the 2nd of November.” (Translation with deepl.com of https://fr.wikipedia.org/wiki/Toussaint)	9:00 am Health promotion and education: An introduction	9:00 am Students report on the papers they had to read.	9:00 am Students report on the papers they had to read.	9:00 am Students report on the papers they had to read.
